Near Mechwart liget, a carefully renovated, furnished apartment offers an elegant city home. Herringbone flooring, a light kitchen and a round dining table create an interior that is relaxed yet coherent. Beside the living room's grey sofa, views towards the landscaped inner courtyard provide a backdrop for rest.

Three bedrooms have built-in storage. Personal details such as the upholstered headboard, green cabinetry and work corner show how both relaxation and work have a place. One of the two bathrooms has a bath, and the other a glass-screened shower.

A generous balcony extends indoor life outside, while the building's shared roof terrace offers all-round panoramic views. Marble finishes and a bright staircase in the 1930s building, with its Bauhaus and Art Deco influences, enhance the experience of arrival. A lift serves the second floor.

Proximity to Mechwart liget connects the home to urban Buda, while the apartment itself faces the green inner courtyard. Monthly common charges of HUF 38,000 include heating, water and refuse collection; pets are not permitted. The furnished apartment complements the historic building's character with a contemporary, practical interior.
