In Remetekertváros, a bright, modern living room welcomes you beside garden-facing glazing. An island kitchen and glass-table dining area form a light, connected communal space where weekday dinners and guests are equally comfortable. The panoramic position brings the surroundings into the experience of the interior.

Five bedrooms and six bathrooms support the independence of family members and guests. Children's rooms, a walk-in wardrobe and separate rooms for rest allow everyone a place of their own. The shared living room is therefore complemented by clearly distinct settings for personal life as well as a generous sense of space.

The wellness area creates a separate world of relaxation at home. A mirrored gym and two types of sauna can accommodate a daily routine of exercise and unwinding, while the coverable garden pool makes outdoor time more special. The landscaped 1046 m² garden offers space for both shared activities and quieter rest.

Fully renovated in 2020, the house includes a double garage and plant/laundry facilities. Alongside local schools and connections at Hűvösvölgy, family life and recharging at home receive equal attention here. At the end of the day, there is no need to seek another place to relax: the house offers several possibilities of its own.
