In Törökvész, a carefully furnished apartment offers a refined yet easy-to-live-in home. Wide terrace doors open the living room beside a light curved sofa, while the timber kitchen's pale veined island and blue chairs add personal colour. Shared meals and entertaining can become natural parts of everyday life.

One of the three separately accessed bedrooms can serve as a study, keeping home working apart from the living room. Two bathrooms offer both bath and shower options. Alongside the coherent furnishings, the layout leaves room for family members' individual rhythms.

Two terraces provide different outdoor settings for morning coffee, evening conversation or quieter rest. A lift serves the first floor of the building, completed in 2020, and the apartment includes an underground parking space and storage. Törökvész's leafy surroundings provide a calmer Buda backdrop.

The apartment is available furnished; pets are not permitted. Monthly common charges are HUF 94,000, while a HUF 50,000 utility advance covers heating, cooling, water and refuse collection, with annual reconciliation. Electricity is payable separately. The finished, harmonious interior and the convenience of two terraces together create the home's appeal.
