In Terézváros, a furnished apartment with a high living room and gallery offers tenants a distinctive city home. Light seating and a darker island kitchen create an elegant combination, while a bioethanol feature fireplace complements evening relaxation. Cooking and conversation can connect easily in the shared space.

A patterned wall gives the open gallery bedroom its own character. The living room remains a spacious meeting place, while rest moves to a separate level. The stone-effect shower room and equipped kitchen belong to the coherent contemporary interior of this apartment, renovated in 2025.

Built-in storage and a laundry room give everyday tasks an orderly place. Heat-pump heating/cooling and electric shutters support comfort, with a lift serving the first floor. The furnished setting allows a move into an already established home atmosphere.

Ornate common areas in the Art Nouveau building on a pedestrian street provide the historic backdrop to city life. The Opera, Basilica and local restaurants offer leisure options, while metro links support daily travel. Monthly common charges of HUF 18,400 include water and sewerage. After enjoying the city centre, a gallery home with its own atmosphere awaits.
